

TRI-COUNTY QUILT GUILD POLICIES

ADOPTED SEPTEMBER 15, 2005

Revised October 4, 2005

Revised November 1, 2005

Revised July 2007

Revised October 2009

1. Guests are welcome to attend two regular Guild meetings, after which they must join the guild. Guests attending special meetings may be required to pay a fee.
2. Workshop and tour fees must be paid at regular Guild business meetings prior to the workshop. The fee is forfeited in case of absence. Participants may choose to sell their reservation in the workshop to another individual.
3. Items ordered by the Guild for Guild members must be pre-paid.
4. Member entries in the Tri-County Quilt Guild Show will be charged a fee.
5. The Guild may subsidize workshops.
6. A Guild member who houses an out-of-town speaker will be compensated accordingly.
7. A name tag is to be worn at meetings. Members are encouraged to wear name tags.
8. Speakers who do not charge a fee may be paid a $50 honorarium for a program presentation.
9. Due to the advanced scheduling of national teachers and speakers, the Program Chairman may schedule teachers and speakers beyond their term of office.
10. A fee for having the newsletter mailed to your home will be assessed. Newsletters will be available on the internet at the Guild website.
11. Bee members will not be allowed to participate unless their dues are current.
12. Membership information is intended solely for the guild members to communicate information among themselves. Membership information will not be shared with or sold to any other business enterprise without the expressed written permission of the respective guild members.
